Overview

Part I   The problem: suicides in mental health care services

1  Introduction
2  Guidelines for the treatment of suicidal behavior:
   An overview
3  Suicides in users of mental health care services:
   treatment, characteristics and hindsight reflections

Part II  The procedure: supervision of suicides in mental health care services

4  An examination of the Dutch Health Care Inspectorate’s supervision system of suicides in mental health care users
5  The Dutch Supervision System of suicides in mental health care:
   evaluations by clinicians, medical directors and inspectors

Part III  The practice: Aspects of suicide prevention in mental health care services

6  The no-suicide contract: a risky ritual
7  Psychopathology and suicide method in mental health care
8  Prevention of post-discharge suicide: an inventory

Part IV  Theoretical considerations and recommendations

9  General discussion

Summary
Samenvatting
Dankwoord