Appendix 2

The datasets used in this study are available as Excell-files at the website of the ACVU (www.acvu.nl/jeneson).

The explanation of the coded values used in the datasets can be found in `Jeneson_codedvalues_explanation`.

Please note:

The description of find material in the datasets are often in Dutch and/or German.

For obvious reasons the datasets available on the website do not contain the xy-coordinates. When required, datasets with the xy-coordinates can be obtained from the author. Please send your request to kjeneson@xs4all.nl, with an explanation why you need the spatial component of the sites.
