This dissertation would not have been possible without the support and help from many people in many different ways. Those people to whom I owe a great deal of thanks I would like to address my appreciation:

First and the foremost, I would like to express my gratitude to my promoters, Hans Visser and Meine Pieter van Dijk, and my co-promoter Henry Sandee. Fortunately, they are quite familiar with Indonesia prior to my promoters that make easier to discuss my research outcome from the field survey and case study in Central Java, Indonesia

Prof. dr. Hans Visser, a careful, discipline supervisor is not only provide me a shared office room and special time for consultation patiently, but also he assists me to solve non academic problems. Thank you for your attention until the completion of my dissertation, that is meaningful for me. Furthermore I would like to thank Prof. dr. Meine P. van Dijk, a discipline supervisor with the strong critics, who understand my aspiration quickly and always pays me attention. Thank to dr. Henry Sandee who support me from the other aspects that not yet be fulfilled by the two promoters. He also plays a substantial role to reinforce my spirit to survive of my study and life in Amsterdam. The collaboration between the three supervisors so much helps me in finishing my dissertation. Even tough when the dissertation was a draft they give me critics, questions, and suggestions from many aspects; I find that I was given the opportunity to explore all possibilities to articulate relevance and ultimately reshape the substances of dissertation

I am grateful to the people of the Secretariat and Management of Vrije Universiteit in general, especially the Secretariat and Management of the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration. My study is part of a collaboration between the two Faculties of Economics and Business Administration of Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam and Satya Wacana Christian University Salatiga. Prof. dr. Piet Rietveld and dr. Henry Sandee were the key persons in this collaboration. Through their effort, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam still gives me financial subsidy, where Ivone Kops, Frans Sneijders, Inge Borst manage that. Many thanks for all of the support. Beyond the academic and financial factors, there is also the problem of housing in Amsterdam which is getting tougher, Trudi, Elfie, A. van Ginkel, B. Hoppenbouwers thanks for helping me in dealing with this problem so that I can stay in a nice hospitium that make my study comfortable. I wish also extend my thanks to Vera Kusters, Secretariat Economics, who helps me in some administrative works, to Barbara Spruit who solves intricate problems of permission of temporary stay in Amsterdam. Alex Halsema, PhD Candidate, to let me stay in his apartment, Postjesweg 381, for one month. It gives me an additional experience to stay away from VUA, outside VU Hospitium.

I also received great support from Prof. dr. Maarten Lindeboom, former Director Graduate Studies of Tinbergen Institute together with Marian Duppen, professional and helpful secretary gave me chance to choose the course which the most suitable for my dissertation and to use a comfortable office. A quiet place for work facing the canal Keizersgracht gave me inspiration to my dissertation.. Walther Schoonenberg, system administrator who is responsive, gave me chance to use a reliable computer set Also Prof. dr. Jaap. Abbring, Current Director Graduate Studies of Tinbergen Institute, Prof. dr. Maaten (M.C.W.) Jansen, Director of Tinbergen Institute and Nora El Hantali who give me a chance to finish the publishing, thank you for all of you.

In 1993, when Prof. Dr. John J.O.I Ihalauw was chosen as rector and I was accepted to study PhD in Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, where on the same time he asked me to help him as financial affair and as consequence I had to delay my study. However, he gives me full support in my study start from in the middle of 2001, when at that time Konta Intan Damanik, as the vice rector of external affairs, provides me a scholarship from United Board Christian Higher Education in Asia (UBCHEA). The consecutive/subsequent vice rectors in external affairs, Raema Andreana and Agna S. Krave keep going to provide the UBCHEA scholarship. They are my colleagues, my teachers who support me wholeheartedly and attentively. Many thanks of all your valuable contribution of this dissertation. I also thanks to the present rector who give me direct support- Prof. Dr. Kris Herawan Timotius, then the vice rectors Prof. Dr. Daniel Kameo (academic affair) Dr. Harijono (Financial Affairs), Dr. Agna S. Krave (External affairs) and the former rector Prof Dr. Rev. John Titaley. The administration of University that support me through the staffs: Mia, Yuli, Widya, Mimie, Susalit, Ning, Endang, Atik who help me in facing administrative problems. Thank you for all your helps.

Furthermore, the faculty of economics Satya Wacana supports me in financial mainly for my research and for my working place in analyze the data. Thus, I would also acknowledge the former Dean, Prof. Dr. Hendrawan Supratikno, vice dean in financial, Linda Kusuma Effendi SE. MBA, and the present Dean Usil Sis Sucahyo SE. MBA and the administration staffs: Wahyu, Tri Ikat, Hermin, Dyah, Wardoyo, Kamto. The chairperson of the accountancy study program, Rony Prabowo SE. MCom, and Dr. I. Sony Hery Priyanto support me in providing me methodology books, and AMOS Software which are useful in analyzing the data. My friend Prof. Dr. Christantius Dwiadmadja, often supports me with spirit while we are having lunch. He shares his hard time experience during his study in Holland. While Bayu Wijayanto SE. MSc, the chairperson of CEMSED (Center for Micro and Small Enterprise Dynamics) gives me the chance to get involved in consultations and researches that relevant with my research in microfinance. CEMSED staffs: Suryanto, Atik, Nindito, Andi. Many thanks for all of you. I am grateful to Prof. Dr. Supramono, the Director of Graduate Studies of Satya Wacana, along with his administrative staffs : Yola, Effe, Agus and Trifosa to provide me room for discussion and share jokes to relax from the tension of burden in daily tasks.

During my field research in Central Java, I received generous assistance from many people, institutions. For all of them I would like to thank you. I am indebted to H. Said Hartono, director of PT. BPR Gunung Kawi, former chairperson of Indonesian BPR Association (Perbarindo) of Central Java and current chairperson of Perbarindo – at National Level. He supports me by make the easy access to BPRs in the sample. Ferryd Tjahya Hendra S SE., who gives me opportunity to doing the field visit five Swamitras Cooperatives a microfinance with operational modus likes BPR, then I can do the pre test questionnaire before I do the next pre tes in BPR. Some institutions give me permission for doing the research, that are Bank Indonesia Semarang, Kesbanglimas and Supervisory body of BKK located in Provincial level and regencies/cities level: Semarang and Salatiga Cities; regencies of Semarang, Purwodadi, Kendal, Pati, Magelang, Sukoharjo, Surakarta, Klaten, Banyumas, Wonosobo, Temanggung.

Special thanks to the directors of BPR who give generous information and give me chance for doing in-depth study: H. Zahrul Faisal Sag. SH. Msi (PD BPR BKK Ungaran), A. Suyatna SE.,(PD BPR BKK Bringin), Sindang Iwari SE., & Ignatius (PT BPR BMMS Klaten), Untung Suprpto (PT. BPR Sinar Enam Delanggu), Tatiana Tutti Widiarti (PT. BPR Kridaharta Salatiga), Agus Suyono SE., and Adi Cahyono SE., (PT. BPRS Iksanul Amal, Gombong), Sugeng Supriyadi SE. (PT. BPRS Asad Alif, Sukorejo). Those friendly directors are openly in answering the face to face questions and telephone questions. Moreover, they also willing to be recorded in video tape while the interview without feeling nervous – which mean they answer confidently. I really appreciate for more than 150 BPR directors and more than 140 BPR clients who contribute the data for this research. Of course, my thanks also go to those who made contribution to this work. They are field assistants, newly graduated person, Lely, Galuh, Mei, Farid, Gentur and Sicca; the data analyst assistant Dewi and Yeni. Some of you accompanied me travelling around the country side since early in the morning until sun set to visit directors of BPRs in some remote and long distance area. The only thing I can say is thank you so much.

Without my friends who like my own family, two years staying in Amsterdam will be boring. Agna S.Krave and his helpful family- Wiwien, Illa, and Aaron were my neighbour in Uilenstede Amstelveen. When it was weekend we went around Amsterdam using cycle and then ate the food made by this family. I discover that this kind of activity can renew my spirit to study. Almost all important parts of Amstelveen and Amsterdam , such as Amsterdam Boss, Amstelpark, Voondlepark, Arena, etc. and even Alsemeer and Schiphol Airport have been conquered by bicycle. Also my friends, Dr. Rully Adi Nugroho, Adi Setiawan, are also giving me new spirit by doing the cooking and discussion in our leisure time. Church activity, especially together with Adi and the other church members like, Om Frans and Tante Jeane, who lead the choir in GKIN, also give me new spirit in study. Thank you for all of the encouragement. When I was preparing for the PhD, Juliani Wahjana and Henry Sandee also help me some primary needs to stay in Walstraat apartment, near the Rai Station. At that time, Dr. Marthen nDoen let me shared his room for a while before entering this apartment and he gave me valuable advise. Thank you for giving me hands.

Involvement in some social-religious activities of Indonesian in Netherlands together with Romo Sunu, Enade, and Cecil give me the feeling like home sweet home. During one year, Romo Sunu as my neighbour share experience of herbal plantation while we are cooking together. Their presence can fulfil my leisure time and make me feel not bored. Om Richard and Tante Lies – even though far away, Alphen a/d Rhein always keep in touch and supports me. To my friends Roos and Titi, together we approach the co-promotor Henry Sandee when he was busy in managing Radio Netherlands Indonesian Section. I am indebted to Candra Wijaya, my friend who approached me to be a team of managing a consulting company (Deo Management) – banking and corporate consulting which were the new BPRs establishment around Java, Bali, and Lampung become the core business in 1990s. This experience enrich me in writing dissertation. To all Commissioners and the shareholders of PT. BPR Ambarawa Hartasarana (Amin S, Kusyadi, Bambang I, Gatot S.) and Management and GKJ Synod of Pension Fund, GKJ (Widjianto, Arie S. Sri Muryani and Rev Saryoto), I owe all of you since you have entrusted me to be the chairman even I am away from you. For all my friends thank you for all the supports. Indeed, I will never forget all types of assistance and contribution from the people that I could not name them all. I do appreciate and thank to all of them.

In finishing the final phase, I would also acknowledge Henry Sandee and Natalia van de Vijver for helping me in translating the executive summary into Netherlands, Nederlandse Samenvatting. Thanks to Andrew Thrend, who help me in proof read this dissertation. I really appreciate all the help that make this dissertation easy to be understood

Last, but not least my family, my wife, Rachel Sri Widiyanti, my daughter Mary Leusa Prasetyanti with her husband, Choi Jong Won and my son Yahya Yoga Prasetyanto (Y2K). I miss you for two years away from home. Especially, Y2K when I started to study you were still a child but in the end of the study you are now taller than me. Thank you for the support and prayers until I finish this study.
