CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

PAGE 21

1 The Dutch Protestant world and its others
2 Concepts and theoretical approach
   › Mission, diaconate and development cooperation: negotiating otherness in secular and religious repertoires
   › Network
3 Core question and ancillary questions – outline of the book
4 Methodological considerations

CHAPTER II

The Protestants Landelijk Dienstencentrum and its inhabitants

PAGE 61

1 Introduction l in the “hart van Nederland”
   › Panoramas
   › Guided tour through PLD
2 The Protestant Church in the Netherlands in the Dutch religious landscape
   › The emergence of the PKN
   › Dutch religioscape
   › Organisation of the new church
3 KiA – the church in action
   › Introduction
   › General information on KiA
   › A window to the “South”
4 The ICCO Alliance
   › ICCO and the Dutch politics for development cooperation
   › The forging of the Alliance
   › Reorganising the PLD
5 Conclusion
CHAPTER III
Symbolic repertoires of mission and development: religious and secular constructs

1 Introduction
   › An ethnographic account of documents
   › Policy documents and travel reports

2 From heathendom to poverty – comparing otherness in two documents
   › The first travel report – 1959: a new terra incognita
   › The 1982 beleidsstuk – two-way traffic and elective affinities

3 The absence of diaconate: documents of Alliance times
   › Policy Paper for Mission – 2004: the vagueness of the other
   › ICCO Alliance Operational Plan: looking for accountable entrepreneurs

4 Mission and migration: otherness beyond theologies
   › The Igreja Evangélica Reformada and its others: wheat, weeds and Araucaria pines.
   › Een aanzet tot overleg – 1997: conflicts between “the mother and the daughter”

5 Conclusion

CHAPTER IV
Practices and encounters in mission and development

1 Introduction | encountering the other in a continuous world

2 In Utrecht – Teamoverleg ENLA

3 The ICCO Alliance meets its partners
   › The meeting in Salvador
   › Between identity and difference

4 Encounters in São Paulo
   › Corrente Viva
   › The caterpillar’s hunger and the perfume of the flowers

5 Conclusion
CHAPTER V
Local parishes: tangible church and tangible action

1 Introduction
2 The local church in action
   › The ZWO-commissies
   › Kerk in Actie Interactief and the free-competition in the "charity market"
3 The meanings of money and the materiality of giving
   › Money as gift and mediator
   › Giving to Kerk in Actie: symbolic, real and virtual money
   › The purification of money and the performance of the gift
4 Experiencing mission and deaconry – sensational forms and the transcendence of otherness
   › The body of the church in action
   › Sensational forms – otherness and transcendence
5 Conclusion

CHAPTER VI
Localising differences: missionary landscapes and the Dutch Protestant World

1 Introduction | mapping the Dutch Protestant world
2 Missionary geographies of the Dutch Protestant world
   › Scientific cartography and the shadows of North and South
   › Journeying through the cultural mosaic
   › The re-enactment of journeys and the reversal of the cartographic illusion
3 The production of “globality” – Localising global subjects
4 Conclusion