Biography

Math Osseforth was born in Sittard on 12 October 1963. After primary school, under the auspices of the Zusters Augustinessen van Sint-Monica, he enrolled in the grammarschool at the Bisschoppelijk College St. Joseph, also in Sittard. He graduated in 1982. In August of that year he started with Greek and Latin Languages and Cultures at the Rijksuniversiteit Utrecht and graduated at the same university in 1987. From 1986-1987 he took part in the propedeuse programme of Theology at the Katholieke Theologische Hogeschool Utrecht.

In August 1987 Math Osseforth started teaching Latin, Classical Greek and Ancient history at his former grammarschool in Sittard. A year later he married, Annelies Koppers, his childhood sweetheart. The couple then moved to Hendrik Ido Ambacht, when Math started teaching in Rotterdam. In 2002 he became deputy headmaster, eventually in Gorinchem, where he still works.

Math Osseforth has published two collections of short stories. At present he is working on his first novel.
