

VU Research Portal

Manipulated markets

Mirgorodskaya, E.

2017

document version

Publisher's PDF, also known as Version of record

Link to publication in VU Research Portal

citation for published version (APA)

Mirgorodskaya, E. (2017). Manipulated markets: Essays on how news media affect investors' minds. [PhD-Thesis – Research external, graduation internal, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam].

General rights

Copyright and moral rights for the publications made accessible in the public portal are retained by the authors and/or other copyright owners and it is a condition of accessing publications that users recognise and abide by the legal requirements associated with these rights.

- Users may download and print one copy of any publication from the public portal for the purpose of private study or research.
- You may not further distribute the material or use it for any profit-making activity or commercial gain
- You may freely distribute the URL identifying the publication in the public portal

Take down policy

If you believe that this document breaches copyright please contact us providing details, and we will remove access to the work immediately and investigate your claim.

E-mail address:

vuresearchportal.ub@vu.nl

Acknowledgements

It has been six years since I started my journey into the academic world. During these years I underwent a long way from being a master graduate to a researcher with publication records. The journey has not been always smooth: my successes followed by challenges and I experienced a plenty of up's and down's. I put a tremendous amount of work in writing this dissertation and now, as I approach the end of my PhD, I am extremely proud of the results I achieved.

I would like to express a great amount of gratitude to my supervisor and co-author, Roman Kräussl, for his continuous help, support, and encouragement throughout the entire process of my PhD. We had numerous inspiring and intellectually intriguing conversations about topics we both shared interest in. Roman showed me the academic world and taught me how to become a successful academic writer. Thank you for always having trust in me and being on my side. I truly believe that without your support I would not be able to achieve what I have achieved during these years.

My special thank goes to Michael Damm, who together with Roman Kräussl arranged a position for me at the VU University Amsterdam as a PhD student back in 2011. Sadly, Michael Damm is not among us anymore as he passed away in the end of 2016.

I appreciate all the help and support that Theo Koken provided to me. Theo played a crucial role in financing my research as well as helping me in writing my second paper by providing useful feedback.

I would like to thank Ton Vorst for his contribution in finalizing my thesis in the later stages of my PhD; Ronald Bosman for his help in writing my second paper; Guido Baltussen and Diego García for their contribution in my fourth Chapter; Leo Pass, Arjen Siegmann and Martijn van den Assem for their feedback on my papers; Marcin Zamojsky for helping me in automating my data collection; Marius Zoican, Nico Dragt, Thomas van Galen, Jindi Zheng, Juangyu Ji, and Xiaoyo Shen for their help and support during my PhD.

I enjoyed attending international conferences, where I had an opportunity to present my research. I would like to thank all reviewers and participants of the 6th International Accounting & Finance Doctoral Symposium, the 2013 Behavioral Finance Workshop Group, the 2014 FMA European Conference, the 2014 EFMA Conference, the 2015 ERIC conference, the 2015 INFINITI conference and the 2015 FRM European Meeting.

Additionally, the quality of my work significantly improved from the comments by editor and anonymous reviewers of the European Journal of Finance and the Journal of Economic Behavior and Organization.

I benefited a lot from the additional course work I did at the TI Institute and the University of Amsterdam as well as from the seminars at the TI Institute, the Duisenberg School of Finance, and the VU University Amsterdam.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my mother Tatiana Lehto, father Yurij Mirgorodskiy, and my step-father Juha-Pekka Lehto for always being around, motivating, encouraging, and supporting me in my journey. Sadly, Juha-Pekka Lehto will not be able to share the joy with me as he passed away in 2013, but I am sure he is proud of my achievements somewhere in a better world.