CONTENTS

Chapter 1 General Introduction \hspace{5em} 7

Chapter 2 Developmental Pathways Linking Childhood Temperament with Antisocial Behavior and Substance Use in Adolescence: Explanatory Mechanisms in the Peer Environment \hspace{5em} 33

Chapter 3 Sex Differences and Parallels in the Development of Externalizing Behaviors in Childhood: Boy’s and Girl’s Susceptibility to Social Preference among Peers \hspace{5em} 80

Chapter 4 Early Onset of Cannabis Use: Does Personality Modify the Relation with Changes in Perceived Parental Involvement? \hspace{5em} 101

Chapter 5 DRD4 Genotype and the Developmental Link of Peer Social Preference with Conduct Problems and Prosocial Behavior Across Ages 9–12 Years \hspace{5em} 124

Chapter 6 Familial Influences on the Effectiveness of a Universal Classroom-Based Preventive Intervention on Peer Acceptance and Conduct Problem Development \hspace{5em} 161

Chapter 7 General Discussion \hspace{5em} 191

Appendices

- English Summary \hspace{5em} 215
- Nederlandse Samenvatting \hspace{5em} 220
- References \hspace{5em} 225
- Supplementary Material \hspace{5em} 261
- Curriculum Vitae \hspace{5em} 269
- List of Publications \hspace{5em} 270