Table of Contents

1. Introduction .......................................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
   1.1 Introduction .......................................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
   1.2 Context of the study ................................................. Error! Bookmark not defined.
   1.3 Relevance of the study .............................................. Error! Bookmark not defined.
   1.4 Reconciliation in the Christian context ......................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
   1.5 Research question .................................................. Error! Bookmark not defined.
   1.6 Methodological clarification ....................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
   1.7 Thesis outline ...................................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.

2. The symbol of reconciliation in Christian theology .. Error! Bookmark not defined.
   2.1 Introduction .......................................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
   2.2 Reconciliation in the Christian Tradition ....................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.2.1 The Old Testament .............................................. Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.2.2 The New Testament ............................................ Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.2.3 The early Church Fathers ..................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.2.4 The Medieval period ........................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.2.5 The Reformation Period ....................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.2.6 The post-Reformation period .................................. Error! Bookmark not defined.
   2.3 The three main views of atonement: An overview of Aulén’s Christus Victor Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.3.1 Background....................................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.3.2 The Ransom view (Christus Victor or classic theory) Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.3.3 The Latin view (Anselmian or penal substitutionary theory) Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.3.4 The subjective view (moral influence theory) ...... Error! Bookmark not defined.
   2.4 Responses to the atonement models as outlined in Christus Victor Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.4.1 Responses to the ransom view (Christus Victor or classic theory) Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.4.2 Responses to the Latin view (Anselmian or penal substitutionary theory) Error! Bookmark not defined.
      2.4.3 Responses to the Subjective view (Moral influence theory) Error! Bookmark not defined.
   2.5 Closing reflections ................................................ Error! Bookmark not defined.
3. Justice through reconciliation in Jesus Christ

3.1 Introduction

3.2 The Message to the People of South Africa (1968)

3.2.1 Cottesloe

3.2.2 Cottesloe in perspective

3.2.3 The Message to the People of South Africa: An overview

3.2.4 The Message in perspective

3.3 The Belhar Confession (1982/1986)

3.3.1 Ras, Volk en Nasie en volkeverhoudinge in die lig van die Skrif

3.3.2 Ras, Volk en Nasie in perspective

3.3.3 The Belhar Confession: An overview

3.3.4 The Belhar Confession in perspective

3.4 The National Initiative for Reconciliation (1985)

3.5 Closing reflections

4. Justice and reconciliation after liberation

4.1 Introduction

4.2 Historical Background to the Kairos Document

4.2.1 The Study Project on Christianity in an Apartheid Society

4.2.2 The World Council of Churches Programme to Combat Racism

4.2.3 The SACC National Conference at Hammanskraal

4.2.4 The emergence of the Black Consciousness movement

4.2.5 The emergence of a Black Theology of liberation

4.2.6 Prologue to Kairos

4.3 The Kairos Document

4.3.1 An overview of the Kairos Document

4.3.2 The Kairos Document in perspective

4.4 Closing reflections
5. Reconstruction requires national reconciliation

5.1 Introduction

5.2 Towards the Truth and Reconciliation of South Africa

5.2.1 The transitional period

5.2.2 Rustenburg: Redefining the role of the churches

5.2.3 Rustenburg in perspective

5.2.4 The proposal for a theology of reconstruction

5.3. The Truth and Reconciliation Commission of South Africa

5.3.1 Reconciliation as a national initiative

5.3.2 The mandate of the TRC

5.3.3 Religious symbolism and the TRC

5.3.4 The framing of reconciliation at the TRC

5.3.5 Narrative and the TRC

5.3.6 Forgiveness and Repentance at the TRC

5.3.7 The notion of guilt at the TRC

5.3.8 The churches and their involvement at the TRC

5.3.9 The TRC in perspective

5.4 Closing reflections

6. Conclusion

6.1 Recapitulation

6.2 Reconciliation in Christian soteriology

6.3 Integrating the three approaches to reconciliation

6.4 The quest for reconciliation deferred

6.5 The quest for reconciliation as a shared dispute

6.6 Navigating the discourse on reconciliation in South Africa

6.7 Towards an agenda for further theological reflection on reconciliation

Bibliography

Summary