Curriculum Vitae

Curriculum Vitae

Asuman Büyükcan Tetik was born in Ankara, Turkey in 1977. She received a bachelor degree in Business Administration and a master's degree in Accounting and Auditing. She worked as a banker for eight years. In six years of that time period, she was an internal auditor. In the other two years, she was an assistant manager in a corporate credits monitoring department. One day, she finally had the courage to pursue her passion in psychology. In 2009, she was accepted to a master's program in Social and Organizational Psychology in Koç University, Turkey. In her master's thesis under the supervision of Prof. Çiğdem Kağıtçıbaşı, she investigated the dimensions of marital commitment among Turkish women and the effect of socioeconomic status on these dimensions. In 2011, Prof. Catrin Finkenauer and Asuman wrote a proposal together for a PhD project and received a grant from Nuffic (Netherlands Organization for International Cooperation in Higher Education). Since the beginning of 2012, Asuman has been working as a PhD student with Prof. Finkenauer. During her PhD, Asuman also worked with Prof. Lorne Campbell as a guest researcher in University of Western Ontario, Canada.
