Acknowledgements

At first, I want to thank everybody who took part in my journey to obtain my PhD.

A special thank you to Tom Grossmann, my promotor, for giving me the opportunity to develop my research skills and also my personality within his group. Thank you for fruitful discussions, both successful projects and less successful ones during the last years. I am deeply thankful for your trust and freedom to apportion my time freely between Amsterdam and Dortmund. Thank you for your support!

I am very grateful to all members of my thesis examination and/or promotion defense committee for reading my thesis and taking part in this final stage of my PhD. I would like to thank Prof. Dr. Jan van Maarseveen, Dhr. Dr. Francesco Mutti, Prof. Dr. Romano Orru, Prof. Dr. Peter Timmerman and Prof. Dr. Bert Windhorst.

Thank you Adrian, Fabian, Kerstin and Niall for proof reading my thesis.

Next, I want to thank all my colleagues throughout the past years. The GrossmannLab - during all the past 5 years we shared ideas, expertise and experience, struggle but also a lot of success. Thank you Laura, H el ene, Gernot, Chang-Uk, Nico, Christiane, Jochen and Philipp for all the educated guesses, discussions and shared experiences during our group meetings. Thanks for many legendary evenings. Following up on this, I want to thank HennigLab. Thanks for a great time in and out of the Lab. Thanks for a really much appreciated great working environment. This brings me to the Romanos – I am really thankful for all your help throughout our journey from moving the lab and settling down in Amsterdam. You eased our arrival and our settling with a lot of help, fun and borrels. A big special thank you here to Elwin, Esther, Gydo, John, Jordy, Jurriën, Răzvan and Vero.

Moving a lab: Julia, Kerstin, Marta and Mathias; our small group, a lot of discussions, thoughts, nerves, time, ice cream and breaks... in my opinion, this time has knit us together. Thank you for this. Thank you Niall, Kisi and Felix for joining our group and building up on what has been started, having a completely running lab now. It was a pleasure finishing my last year(s) with you guys.

Adrian – I am thankful for many serious conversations. Thanks for sharing the passion for outdoors and travelling. Thanks for sharing the appetite for Pho. I am convinced that our journey has not ended yet and that we will keep updating each other at least via phone on our long car rides travelling through Germany.

Arne – our journey is the longest. I am glad that I met you 10 years ago and I am very thankful having had you beside me all these years as a colleague and of course as a friend. I am sure that we will continue being there for each other. Thank you for everything we shared: good and bad.

Kerstin – thank you for being so positive, no matter what's happening. Thanks for joining me in our sewing classes and at the beginning my sport experiences in Amsterdam (lazy me!). Thanks for listening, for talking, for helping. Thanks for criticism and for support and trust!

Marta - I am grateful having had you on my side. Beginning in the tiny office in Dortmund, while moving to Amsterdam and while “settling” in here, at least as far as I did. We both learned a lot from each other, even about ourselves. Thank you for being such a great and unforgettable colleague and friend and thank you for all our serious conversations.

Sven - I enjoyed our journey throughout the last years. Thanks for being a great climbing partner, showing me my limit in Kunstfliegen, and all the drinks and evenings we shared.

Zum Schluss möchte ich noch meiner Familie danken. Danke dafür, dass ihr immer für mich da seid und dass ihr nie (selten ;) ) an mir zweifelt. Danke, dass ihr in all den Jahren, an denen ich an der Uni war, meine Launen, meine Ups and Downs ertragen habt. Danke für euer Vertrauen und eure Unterstützung.

Lieber Fabian, dir danke ich von ganzem Herzen, dass du Teil meines Lebens bist und es so unbeschreiblich bereicherst.
