Living with type 2 diabetes: piece of cake, or bitter pill to swallow?

Anne Lieuwkje van Puffelen

Illness perceptions, and (their role in) self-management and quality of life during the first years of illness.

“Life is like an ever-shifting kaleidoscope - a slight change, and all patterns alter” - Sharon Salzberg